

The airwaves are public property and should be administered for the public benefit. The public will not benefit from a monopoly on the airwaves by a few large corporations, Clear channel, and News Corp and Viacom and Disney, etc. have enough. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules and protect our democracy.